2024 President John Po

“You don’t make a photograph just with a camera. You bring to the act of photography all the pictures you have seen, the books you have read, the music you have heard, the people you have loved.”

Ansel Adams

To our wonderful members of PPLAC:

First: Okay, okay, I get it. This letter is far too long. I assure you, future letters from me will be shorter. Now that we’ve got that out of the way, on to what’s in my heart:

It is both an honor and a privilege to serve you as our incoming president for 2024. Thank you for having the courage and faith in entrusting me with this sacred responsibility. I will do my very best to live up to the expectations and desires we share to keep our wonderful organization robust, thriving, and growing, both individually and organizationally.

As I assume the presidency, I want to acknowledge our outgoing president, Nikki Washburn. Thank you again, Nikki, for leading us through the past two years. Balancing your work and responsibilities was no easy task and you did it with ease, grace, and charm!

Speaking of Nikki, how about a “shout out” to the amazing “Nikki and Mel team” that put together our wonderful Open House?! You two make a great team ... in more ways than one ... and what you achieved was a stellar evening for one and all. Again, thank you for all your hard work, creative input, and what turned out to be a first-class event!

This leads me to one more “shout out”: thank you to Paul’s Camera, and specifically to Mark Comon for graciously opening up his Creative Photo Academy classroom for our PPLAC Open House. His generous support and infectious enthusiasm that evening is greatly appreciated!

To our incoming board, what a stellar group of photographers and friends we have, all assembled under one banner. With their experience, leadership, and warm spirits, we are going to have fun this year! I look forward to working with each and every one personally! Thank you for stepping up and giving of your time and resources to make PPLAC the great organization it is!

And, finally, and certainly not least, to our members at large: I am here for YOU! It is our goal, our desire, our wish that we can use this platform to further your photographic skills and at the same time, enhance our personal relationships along the way, growing together regardless of our photographic skill level; from hobbyist and avid fan to professional photographer.

I would be remiss if I did not mention the accolades that were celebrated at our annual meeting. For 2023, our Architecture Photographer of the Year is John Grusd, our Wedding/Event Photographer of the Year is Eleanor Gray, our Nature Photographer of the Year is Mel Carll, our Open Photographer of the Year is Kevin Karzin, our Portrait Photographer of the Year is John Powers, our Photojournalism Photographer of the Year is Kevin Karzin, and our Landscape Photographer of the Year is John Grusd. And our prestigious Photographer of the Year with his amazing award-winning photographs is the one and only Gary Parsons. Congratulations to every one of you; well deserved honors!

Looking at February, we have some exciting events already set, all thanks to our new 5th Vice President, Liz Chambers. On Sunday, February 25th we are going to Riverside for the annual Dickensfest. Details are forthcoming! Listed below are more opportunities you may want to personally explore.

Be sure to take advantage of our upcoming events and don’t forget that February is our first Digital Photographic Competition (DPC) of the year. Submissions via Printcompetition.com is February 5th – 11th with our actual DPC taking place via Zoom on Thursday evening, 6:00 PM, February 22nd. Good luck to everyone – be sure to submit! You can’t grow if you don’t participate!

Okay, that is far too much from me! Thank you for your patience!

Keep on clickin’!

PPLAC Photographers,

THANK YOU for allowing me to be part of your awesome awards ceremony last night.

It was fun to get to meet so many new friends and re-connect with familiar faces.

We hope you enjoyed your evening in the Creative Photo Academy classroom.

We look forward to many more events and evenings of inspiration.

THANK YOU for your support of our camera store.

We work hard everyday to help you make your best photos.

It takes all of us working together to make this happen.

See ya soon!

Mojave National Preserve Caving Lava Tubes

February 10-11, 2024

Take exit 246 off of I-15, and head south toward the signed Mojave Preserve on Kelbaker Rd. Reset your odometer as you turn onto Kelbaker Road from the highway off-ramp.

A field of cinder cones stands out dramatically from the surrounding Mojave Desert between the city of Baker and Kelso Depot Visitor Center in Mojave National Preserve. Within the lava field is a short trail leading to a tube formed long ago by molten lava.

A ladder takes hikers down into the tube where skylights (holes in the rock ceiling) illuminate a subterranean world.
