April 2022 President's letter

Happy Spring!

Great news! Our April meeting will be in person on April 28th at the Vet Center in Culver City. We look forward to seeing you there - don't miss it! Our own John Powers will share his photographic experience traveling through Iceland and give tips for taking better photos.

Spring has definitely sprung, and we've been having beautiful weather, so I hope you've been getting out there and enjoying the spring season! I made it to the Vasquez Rocks outing in March and had such a great time. John Grusd led us to some great spots for photos and we had a fun lunch at Maria Bonita's Mexican restaurant.

We also have some fun events coming up in April that you won't want to miss! For the first time in two years, the Renaissance Faire will be back at the Santa Fe Dam Recreation Area in Irwindale. On April 9th we're headed there and will be meeting up with IEPPV for lunch. Look for the "Shoot and Share" that follows to see all the wonderful photos. If you like photographing flowers or you're just looking to try something new, join us for Angela Chen's flower workshop on April 30th. This day long event will take us from photographing the flowers through the post processing in Photoshop.

If you know of a great event that we don't have on our schedule, let us know. We are always looking for new ideas and places to go!

Looking ahead to May, we've got our 2nd DPC of 2022. Time flies so start getting those images ready!

Happy Shooting!

Member Spotlight
PPLAC
2021 Photographer of the Year
Sharon Lobel

These days when people hear my name they say, “Where Is She?” My love for travel photography has and is taking me all over the world. I’ve been given yet another nickname, “Mick”, as in from the Rolling Stones, because I don’t let much moss grow under my feet or stay planted in one place for too long. I’m always off on another travel photo adventure!

I was born in a small town in East Texas and raised on a dairy farm. If you blink you just might miss my little town of Winnsboro, Texas but, I will not trade anything for growing up there. Being the middle child of 5 meant I was loved and depended on a lot. Most of the time our house was chaotic because of the milking schedule my dad had to keep and the rest of us going and coming from school and our extracurricular activities. My parents taught us so much and I’m very thankful! I guess sleeping in a tent, making a campfire, and knowing how to survive was not a bad dress rehearsal as a child because I certainly use all those skills today in my travel adventures.

On my 10th birthday my parents gave me an aqua blue film camera. I thought I was the paparazzi from then on out. No one got past me without a photo. Well, that was it and I was off and running with my camera in hand. Everywhere I went so did my baby blue! I guess I got it honestly because my mom was always taking photos of us kids and friends. My dad always said, “If our house ever caught on fire it would go up in film smoke!”

Life continued and as I grew up, I went to college for a business degree but ended up becoming a dental hygienist. During high school and on into college, I found myself in front of the camera and not so much behind the camera. Most of you probably don’t know, it led to me winning Miss Winnsboro and becoming a Miss Texas contestant and finalist! The experience I had from competing in a beauty pageant is another whole ball of wax! It then led me to an amazing career as a print & runway model and TV actress, which is why I landed in Los Angeles many years ago. So, cameras have been in my life for a long time one way or another.

Moving forward rapidly past kids, grandkids & a few husbands...LOL, I had another successful business career as a leather manufacturer for the Franklin Covey Day Planners, which led to designing and importing office and home leather goods for TJMaxx, Marshall’s and HomeGoods in four countries from our showroom in Marina Del Rey for many years. I loved traveling and experiencing China! I just wish I had my camera then that I have today!

In 2005 my family and I went through one of the worst things a family could go through. My youngest brother, 42 years old, had been diagnosed with a brain tumor. He managed the surgery pretty well, but it came with a lot of post-surgery difficulties. On New Year’s Eve my brother phoned all his family and friends; most of us were out celebrating and either didn’t hear the phone ring or didn’t have a cell phone with us. But there it was on my message machine at home.... he was saying his goodbye to me, telling me he loved me, and he’d see me on the other side. Just before midnight, he laid on the couch and took his life. An hour or so later I got the call from the local sheriff as I was the last phone call he made.

It did me in! I was so depressed and beating myself up, as if I could have done something to prevent it from happening. I was mad at him for skipping out on life! I could not get out of bed! I could not function no matter what anyone said or did! I was frozen in time and could not move!

A year later, I was given a gift, a Nikon D40 with all the fixings! I sat up in bed and said I don’t know how to use this camera. The reply was, “I’m asking you to get out of bed and not have any more pity parties! To go out and photograph the world because that was what your brother would want you to do.” I was taken back and yet felt a sense of need. A feeling that I could go out and photograph the world so people could see what they are missing! To give someone else hope to live, to learn, to travel!

So, I got myself out of bed, called the local art school and started taking photo classes because I didn't know an F stop from an ISO to anything about this digital camera! And again...I was off and running with my new fancy camera to photograph the world!

One of my best travel days was when I met a group of people at the San Juan Capistrano Mission. I was shooting the stone arches and a girl came up to me and asked if I was with their group and I said no. She proceeded to tell me about PPLAC. When I got home, I looked up PPLAC's website, found out about their meetings and attended the meeting a few weeks later. Well, that was the best choice I had made in years!

In 2009, I joined PPLAC as a member and quickly was asked to become a board member and serve as Secretary. It wasn't long before all my attention was on my photography. I was shooting high-fashion, children, high school seniors and again...anything that walked in front of the lens. It wasn't until a road trip thru the West when I decided to become a landscape, nature, and wildlife photographer. I was like a dog hanging his head out the window and yelling Stop! Turn Around! GO Back! I was smitten with love for the open range and there and then I knew!

One thing led to another, many years have passed, and I have been honored to hold nearly every position on the board for PPLAC, along with many awards! I tell everyone it is where my roots were planted and where it all started! I grew and so did my photography!

I've had many years as a member and on the board along with accolades at PPC, Professional Photographers of California, earning my California Master of Photography; PPA, Professional Photographers of America, earning my Master of Photography and Master Craftsman, and as of 2021, I was honored to be asked to serve as Governor for ASP, American Society of Photographers.

For several years I have been organizing and coordinating travel photography excursions whether it's to Yosemite National Park, Alaska or to Africa! I guess my business skills and my love for photography kicked in at the same time. I love taking people to new and exciting places to explore and learn how to expand their own photography.

In 2020, when Covid-19 hit, I was in Belize on a 10-day scuba diving trip with my boyfriend and we found ourselves living there for five months. It was the best 5 months of my life! When we finally came back to California, we unplugged from Manhattan Beach and moved to Nevada to start an entire new chapter of life!

We weren't settled into our new place very long when we decided to hike the Appalachian Trail from mile 0 and we accomplished 250 miles thru 3 states and the Smokey Mountains during October. It was breath taking! With only my cellphone in hand – I made the most of it! And don't be fooled, I've merited several of those images in competition but don't tell anyone! Ha!

Shortly after the hike, we ended 2020 with a trip to Chile to photograph the Eclipse only to have it rain cats and dogs on the day of the eclipse! So, we said what the heck, let's rent a car and drive! We drove over 3000 miles from Temuco thru the Atacama Desert and back.

All while traveling elsewhere, I was working on my next trip and that was Africa! In 2021, I spent 2 months in Africa. I organized a group of photographers and non-photographers and we started in South Africa on a private reserve, then all over Namibia thru the red sand dunes, the ocean, and then camping in Etosha National Park and then we finished in Kenya thru 5 National Parks and topping it off with the migration of the wildebeest! It was an experience of a lifetime! Africa lives in my heart every day and I'm so looking forward to returning!

We finished 2021 with a sailing and diving trip to the British Virgin Islands and then a scouting trip to Costa Rica for a future travel photography excursion.

Now I am 100% into travel photography excursions and I feel so fortunate to be able to do what I do and bring people along who have the same interest. If you are ready to dust off your camera and pop the locks on your much neglected suitcase, then we need to talk!

My travel photography excursion list for the remainder of 2022 is Kenya in September, Iceland in October, and Antarctica in November. All locations have only a few spots left or on a waiting list so please call soon. And rumor has it that the legendary Tony Corbell is joining me in Kenya!

For 2023, I have lots of places to go but for Africa it starts in June traveling to South Africa to a private game reserve; July in Chobe, Botswana – Water & Land and in September Kenya – 5 National Parks and the best of the best – Wildebeest migration.

If you are interested, please feel free to contact me at SharonLobelPhotography.com or call me at 818-802-7597. I'm happy to add you to my travel list, plan a trip with your family and discuss everything from clothing, camera gear, locations, and pricing for your budget.

I hope you will travel with me one day! As I always say, "We live every day and only die once!"

March Meeting Highlights

Many thanks to Bryan Welsh for his interesting and informative talk on using the Twelve Elements of a Merit Image as a guide to not only your photography but to your business as well.

He challenged the audience to memorize the 12 Elements and be able to recite them every time you make an image. (See them listed below in the PPA section).

PPLAC Outing: “Dickensfest!” The Winning Photographs!

On Saturday, February 26th, PPLAC held another monthly PPLAC Outing and this time it was off to Riverside for the annual Dickensfest! Five PPLAC photographers made their way through the downtown pedestrian walkways to capture various re-enactors taking on roles of great celebrities of England’s nineteenth century.

Then, on Tuesday evening, March 8th we came together with other members of PPLAC via Zoom to look at the 32 images we wanted to share. We discussed each image and then everyone voted for their favorites. The first place winning image went to Ira Mintz! He received a $25 gift certificate from Amazon. Second and third prize went to Angela Chen! So, she wound up with two gift certificates from Amazon, one for $15 for second place and one for $10 for third place. Congratulations to Ira and Angela and heart-felt thanks to all who participated. There were MANY wonderful images created!

Descanso Gardens!

1418 Descanso Drive
La Canada Flintridge, CA

Join us for our PPLAC Outing to Descanso Gardens. It is a botanical oasis that welcomes all to its cultivated gardens and natural landscapes. Bring your macro lens and a diffuser and join the search for interesting and photogenic flowers. There should be some Camellias still blooming and the Rose Garden might have some blooms. The Tulips might be blooming also! Meet us at the front entrance at 9:00 AM when the gates open.

After photographing in the morning we will then meet at “The Kitchen at Descanso” for lunch to share the exploits from our outing.

Go to <https://www.descansogardens.org> for details and tickets.
Tickets are $15 for adults and $11 for seniors 65 and over.

If you're interested in attending, contact John Powers at:

"Spring Is In The Air ..."

On Saturday morning, March 5th, five of us from PPLAC met at Descanso Gardens in La Canada Flintridge to capture images of the budding, blooming flowers and other horticultural delights. The weather was perfect, the company delightful, and the opportunities bountiful. After spending the morning being led through various parts of the Gardens by Roy Patience, we had lunch together there at The Kitchen at Descanso. It was a wonderful time. As we finished lunch, the first rain drops began to fall so we knew it was time to call it a day. On Tuesday, March 22nd, at 7 PM we shall have our PPLAC Outing Photo Review. Mark your calendar to see the wonderful images everyone caught. The link will be published soon.

Exploring Vasquez Rocks!

10700 Escondido Canyon Road
Santa Clarita, CA

We are off to photograph the famous Vasquez Rocks, the iconic natural location for countless Hollywood productions. The trails are moderate and should pose no problems for most hikers. It is advised to wear comfortable hiking shoes, a hat, bring a canteen of water, and wear some sunscreen. We will be led by the intrepid John Grusd! Plan to meet at the Vasquez Rock Interpretive Center – 8:00 AM!

This event is
FREE!

We meet at 8:00 AM

After photographing in the morning we will then meet at either the Sweetwater Café or Maria Bonita's Mexican Restaurant for lunch to fellowship and share exploits from our outing.

"Beam Me Up, Scotty ..."

On Saturday morning, March 19th, four of us from PPLAC met at Vasquez Rocks in Agua Dulce to capture images of the natural rock formations that jut up all around the terrain. The weather was ideal for tramping around the grounds and getting lots of great photographs. The area is well known for being used as the backdrop to many of Hollywood's classic films. In fact, right behind us is where the intrepid Captain Kirk takes on the alien Gorn, a scene known intimately throughout the Star Trek world! LOL After spending the morning being led through various parts of the grounds by John Grusd, we had lunch together at Maria Bonita's Mexican Restaurant. A great day was had by all. On Tuesday, April 5th, at 7 PM we shall have our PPLAC Outing Photo Review. Mark your calendar to see the wonderful images everyone caught. The link will be published soon.
